WORK, WORK, WORK TILL THE POLLS CLOSE

At present writing there is every assurance that Mr. Hughes will have votes to throw to the birds in the electoral college. That does not signify, however, that the campaign in his behalf should lull, for Nevada, hitherto a problematical state, is now not entirely out of the doubtful column, although the Republicans have every assurance that they will be successful here next Tuesday.

But while campaigning for the president, it is doubly necessary that the good work be kept up for Mr. Platt and Mr. Roberts. Nevada has only one-fifteenth the number of electoral votes that are cast by New York, but it has just as many senators and it has a congressman to assist these senators in holding up the hands of Mr. Hughes when he takes the chair.

It is imperative for the future welfare of the country that Mr. Hughes be elected president, but it is of equal importance to elect a congress that will support him in his tariff and international policies. Vote and work for Sam Platt and Ed Roberts. They will be needed at Washington during the crisis which will befall this nation at the termination of the world war.

MOST HONORABLE JUDGE, MOST ESTIMABLE MAN

J. A. SANDERS believes that the press should be muzzled. He fears free expression of honest opinion, being abetted in this position by his higher-up, Attorney General Thatcher, whom he calls upon to pull his chestnuts out of the fire. Sanders doesn't want the people of Nye county to know the truth, because the truth hurts him like a boil. He once, with the assistance of Mr. Thatcher, suppressed the truth by importing a judge to try the editor of this paper for endeavoring to protect the taxpayers by telling the truth, and, the records will show, the judge sustained objections to the answering of about ninety per cent of the vital questions propounded to the principal witness for Mr. Booth. The press was not only muzzled, but the defense was hog tied.

It is needless, however, to go into the details of this "prosecution," which nearly everyone realizes was a "persecution," for all the people of Nye county are familiar with the details, the case having been liberally reported by the newspapers and the courtroom having been thronged throughout the long drawn farcical proceedings, which proved such a heavy burden upon the taxpayers, who were called upon to foot the bill for what was instituted as a means of personal requital and the gratification of private spite.

Do the people of the State of Nevada wish to place upon the supreme bench one who fears the truth and trembles in the light of day? No, they will select for that honorable place one who has no past to conceal, no present to be ashamed of, no ambition that is not worthy. Such a man—learned, honorable, unpartisan, experienced on the bench—is Hon. T. F. (Barney) Moran.

DEMOCRATIC ASPIRANT TO SUPREME BENCH

"JUDGE" J. A. SANDERS, district attorney of Nye county, did the work of the office alone when it paid a salary of $5000 a year and when there really was some work attached to the position. Later the county settled down to a point where there was little to do on the job and the salary was cut to $300 a month. This was not a saving, for the "judge" then employed, through authorization of the county commissioners, a deputy at a salary of $100 a month and a stenographer at a similar amount, these being needed to assist him in the private practice which he was building up in the office provided him by the taxpayers of Nye county. The latter now pay the "judge's" office $6000 a year, besides his office rent and the various et ceteras.

"Judge" Sanders is now going about the state telling the people that he put down the I. W. W.'s here. He did nothing of the kind. He made no attempt to stop their outlawry and sabotage until a shooting occurred and the gun man was convicted by a jury. The people of Nye county know what the "judge" has done and what he has not done. The hearty handclasp on the back and the grimace which the "judge" deems of better political effect than legal qualification, have been used to lead a portion of the Democratic press of the state into a bear trap.

AT PRESENT MERELY A REQUEST

THE fire bell now rarely rings when an alarm comes in. Usually the department gets what are called still alarms, over the telephone. There are still a number of volunteers whose assistance is acceptable to the paid department and they hurry to the scene of trouble, guided by the department's siren, which has a distinctive tone—at least it had until certain auto owners undertook to copy it. While there is no patent or copyright on a fire truck whistle, it is regrettable that it should be duplicated or imitated, as it means menace to property. The owners of cars carrying the shrill duplication of the fire truck siren are requested to get another sort of horn.

The sword of Damocles was also an "overhead."

A WONDERFUL APPRECIATION (?)

A paper and is credited to the Pioche Record. It was run with the intent of giving the impression that it was a voluntary article of accreditation. But, as a matter of fact, the Pioche Record item was paid for and was marked advertisement. It was originally produced through the mediation of Senator Horsey, who is horsing for Sanders and who is handling his money in White Pine county, or is putting up for him, which amounts to the same thing.

A score of auto loads of people would stop in Tonopah every night if we had commissioners who would remove the high centers from the roads that nature built. The eastern car usually has a low clearance, because they do not have furrowed highways there. The fact is published broadcast in the eastern states that nobody can get through Nye county with less than twelve inches of clearance. By dragging the Midland route occasionally this difficulty could be obviated, and it will be when the brand new board of commissioners is elected.

Vote for the Republican candidate for United States senator and help put an end to the iniquitous caucus gag-rule system of the Democratic party, which prevents the duly elected Democratic senators and congressmen from northern and western states from voting in congress to protect their own constituents' interests, and compels them to vote according to the demands and dictates of members representing constituents hundreds of miles away.

Bucharest says the Rumanians are chasing the Dutch. Berlin reports that the Rumanians are getting a horrible "strafing." It looks like another case of "the mother was chasing her boy round the room." There will be something doing, probably, if the Teutons and Rumanians ever meet.

Mr. Adamson is very desirous of having his answer to Mr. Balliet published. Funny how intensely Carson City is interested in the Nye county election.

Why die before the war ends when it now costs twenty per cent more for the funeral?

From all instances it is growing quite plain that Carranza has established a wireless between himself and Villa.—Cincinnati Tribune.

And now there is a rumor that Villa has married another wife and is spending his honeymoon "somewhere in Mexico."—Atlanta Constitution.
